A CENTURY OF STYLE

May 2018 | Comporta, Portugal

HOMEOWNERS Valentine & Patrick Perrin
DESIGNER Suduca & Mérillou

"I fell madly in love with the rugged landscape here—the sun, the sand, the endless beach," said Paris art dealer Patrick Perrin, who ultimately built a house for his wife and children. Refined textures complement that rough-and-ready air, such as earth-tone rattan, wicker, rope, and wool. "It's chic, but the holiday version," averred designer Thierry Mérillou.
